

Data Sharing for State Policy Making & Program Evaluation

Andrew Rogers

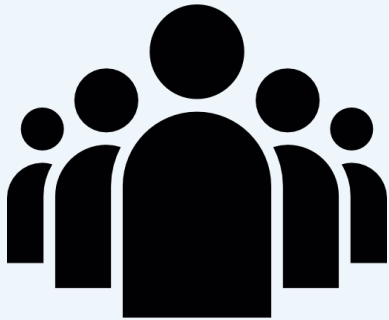

Senior Director, Workforce Information
Center for Regional Economic Competitiveness

Association of Public Data Users Annual Conference

September 14, 2016

Our Goal: Increasing Impact

Workforce Development

Policy Analysis

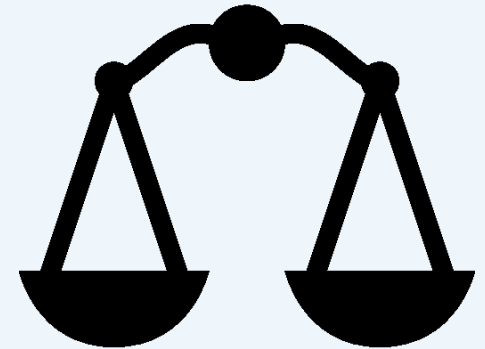

Data Sharing

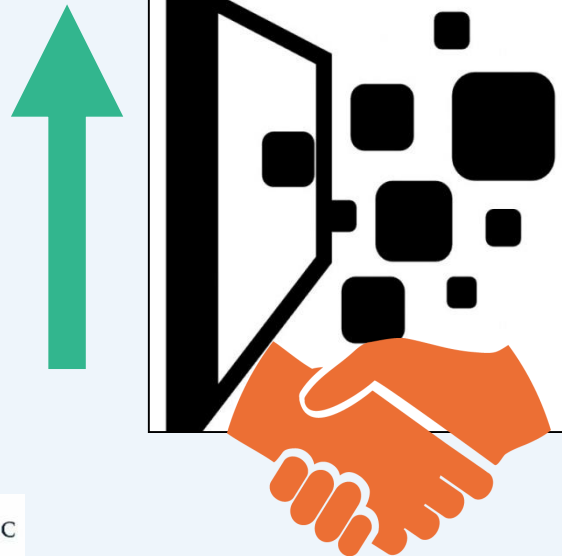

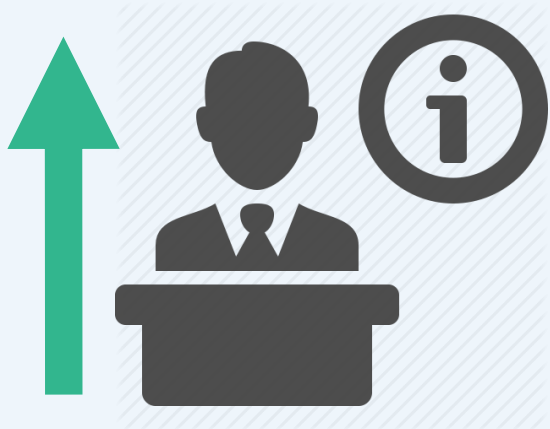

Economic Development

Program Evaluation

Why is Data Sharing an Issue?

Sharing UI & Corp. Tax Data

Benefits

- Relatively comprehensive
- Longitudinal data analysis
- Reduced burden on companies
- Significant cost savings

Our Approach: Improving Access, Protecting Confidentiality

Project Components

- Research
- Technical Assistance

Analytical Tools

- State Corporate Tax Data Comparison Tool
- Confidentiality Law & Regulation Database

Next Steps

- Website launch
- Technical assistance to five states
(IA, MN, SC, UT, WI)
- Research publications

www.statedatasharing.org

Thank You.

Andrew Rogers

arogers@crec.net

(703) 522-4980x1017

Or

Haden Springer

hspringer@crec.net

(703) 522-4980 x1011